But no mention of Alice, who would have been 9, in 1871. Possibly died.

The Church records again on the weather for Tuesday March 9th 1875, "This day was the first fine day for many long weeks of dismal wintry weather."

Again in 1880 an Agricultural Labourer's wage increased to 17/6d (88p) per week. The Shepherd was one of the highest paid Farm workers.

"Shepherds have always been buried with a lock of their flock's wool, according to tradition , to explain any irregular attendance at Church on a Sunday." (Taken from a book "The Cotswold Sheep".)

Taken from "Country Origins" Spring 1997

"Flitting Day was the name given to 6th April and was the traditional day for married farm workers to move house and job. On that day the roads would be heavy with horse drawn vehicles loaded precariously with the goods and chattels of the country folk.

The new employer would send a wagon and team to collect his new man and this would be on the road early, for there may be some miles to travel.. The man's wife (the housewife) would have already packed as much as possible and furniture was sparse, The kettle and provisions were always packed in a basket, ready for a meal on arrival.

It was a matter of honour to leave the cottage in a spotless condition and a neighbour would often be called in to scrub through when the wagon had left.

The new cottage was something of a surprise package as it was unlikely to have been seen by either the worker or his wife. It went with the job and that was paramount. Many families stayed with the same employer for years, but others, born rovers, moved annually."

Note a tied cottage had to be left if the husband, the worker died, unless his sons could take ir over.

Taken from The History of Berkshire (State Library of Queensland) Brisbane.Qld. "AGRICULTURE 1800-1925"

The Berkshire Sheep were called Berkshire Notts. The had black faces, Roman noses, black or mottled legs and long tails. Their wool was very fine, and they were a hardy breed, surviving the cold best. (They are now extinct (1925).). There were also flocks of Leicesters, Southdowns, Cotterwolds and Wiltshires on the Berkshire Downs"

The Shepherd (copied on ,8.11.1995 by GB Judge) First published 1934.

The Shepherds calling may seem at first sight to be a leisurely one compared with that of a ploughman or labourer, but is it by no means so in fact. He is generally the most independant of the farmer's servants, because he is the most responsible.

There are many more lines about The Shepherd,that will be printed separately.All Information on Census is held by me,also deaths of soldiers, wedding certificate etc. all collected from the Enoggera Family History Centre, Australia, during 1997;1998;1999 & 2000. Kingsthorpe, Northampton., and died 24 Sep 1941 in Royal Berks Hospital, Reading Berks.

Notes for HILDA ROSE STRANGE:

Hilda Rose Strange, born 9th December 1895 Frilsham Farm, Frilsham Berks, daughter of Henry (Harry) Strange and Margaret Emma (nee Hicks), Strange. She was the 5th child and the 2nd daughter.

In the 1901 Census at Frilsham Berks she was a 5yr old girl living with her parents and siblings; Leonard age 12; Alice age 10 and Herbert age 5. at Frilsham Farm. Her father was the shepherd there.

She spoke to me of attending the school at Yattendon Berks, and of watching the race horses train on the downs. (Maybe that is why she loved horse racing so much?) She also remembered how the "lady" of the house gave her a doll one Christmas, and how boring Sundays were. All the estate workers and their families had to walk to church 3 times a day in sunshine and rain. She spoke of her 3 brothers being so tall they were accepted in the Guards regiments All went in the 1914-1918 War, but only one returned.

When it was discovered that some of her grandsons suffered with allergies, Hilda Rose remembered her grandfather had had asthma, (don't know which one) .Her sons had itchy skin, and Leonard's sons, had eczema & asthma while Stanley's 2 sons, a) Philip had hay fever and b) Paul had Nettlerash.

After leaving school Hilda Rose went into "service", we believe it was in London, as she had spoken of the "air raids" and of going down to the cellars while they were on. (World War 1)

In about 1920, she was living in Coventry, working as a domestic cook for Mr J Budge's household, in a big house on the corner of Allersley Old Road and Mount Street, Coventry. Mr Budge was the managing director of the Standard Motor Co. Ltd, which manufactured British Leyland; Standard Triumph and Rover cars, in Coventry, Warwickshire. (Note the house was demolished in 1970's)

She met George Lionel Judge in Coventry, he had just been discharged from the Army and was living in 27 Smith Street, Coventry Warwick. They were married 6th November 1920 at Coventry Register Office. (the Register Office was demolished during World War 2.)

They had 7 children.

Her first child Leonard George Judge was born 6 June 1921 at Salterford, Coventry. He married twice, served in Royal Navy, died 1999 in Southampton.

Hilda Rose and George Lionel moved to Reading in Berkshire and Hilda Rose thought they had rooms in either Bath Road or Tilehurst Road, Reading. (Hearsay) Her husband had applied for a job as a clerk at Broadmoor Asylum, in Crowthorne, and they moved to the village of Crowthorne when he was accepted there.

NOTES., Leonard Judge the eldest child supplied this next lot of info from his memories in 1996, & corrections if any were made by his brother Stanley Judge .

I Remember that:

"My Mother and father, Hilda Rose and George Lionel Judge, myself and brother Lionel (a baby) were living over a garage at the bottom of High Street, Crowthorne, right opposite a recreation ground.

The family then moved to Addiscombe Lodge, Crowthorne, when their first daughter Hilda Sylvia Judge arrived in 1925.

Then we moved once again to a house in Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without, not far from St Sebastian's Church memorial Hall, where another son was born (Kenny) abt 1926 who unfortunately died.

The next child, a son Stanley Douglas was born at Hillrise, Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without, on October 25 1927.

The following year we had moved once again, this time to a cottage in Holley Bush Ride, Wokingham Without, called "Birchenwood" where we stayed about 11 years. During these years 2 more daughters were born: Irene Betty Judge on 15th January 1929 and last but not least Jeanette on 23rd January 1932 (named after Jeanette McDonald, singer/actress)

Hilda Rose my mother had a hard life, as the cottage was very primitive, no running water, their water was from a well in the garden and when that dried up, one of us children had to fetch water from the Kingsmere Lake nearby. (where us Judge children and other kids swam and played during the summer months.) The lighting was by oil lamps and candles, and there was an oil stove and a coal range to cook on . Our next door neighbour was a milkman who kept his milk down his well to keep it cool. "

end of Leonard Judge's information. (Hearsay)

Her second child, Lionel Henry Judge born 22 november 1922 , birth registered in Wokingham Berks R.O . was a backward child, and suffered from learning difficulties.

He never married and died at Glenhorne House Bristol 1988.

Next came Hilda Sylvia Judge born 1925 Easthampstead,Berks RO. married 1945 Reg Seward.

Kenneth Judge born abt 1926 Nine Mile Ride Wokingham, died 1926.

Stanley Douglas Judge, born 25 Oct 1927. Wokingham Without. Married 1951 Gwendolen Betty Judge. emigrated to Australia 1983.

Irene Betty Judge born 15 January 1929 Wokingham Without married 1951 Francis Raymond Hinton.

Jeanette Judge born 23 January 1932 Wokingham Without. married 1955 Eric Viveash.died 1982.

Hilda Rose was a very tall upright woman, even in later life. (her brothers were said to be very tall also) All her children attended St Sebastions School, in Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without,Berks.Her daughter Betty said she used to meet them from this school sometimes bringing a picnic for them to enjoy, stopping to eat it on the way home. (Hearsay)

In 1939, just before the second World War started, Her husband George Lionel Judge bought a detached bungalow called "Ceda Deo" on the Nine Mile Ride, which had all the "mod cons" electricity, running water and a septic tank.

Also son Leonard George joined the Royal Navy boys service on 6 June 1939.

Her son Stanley Douglas remembers, going with his mother to Reading on a Saturday,when he was a boy. They went in by Thames Valley Bus, having lunch in a cafe in Oxford Road, then off to the cinema, usually the Odeon, in Cheapside,for the afternoon, having tea on coming out, they then caught a Corporation bus to the Greyhound Stadium in Oxford Road, where they spent the evening, finishing up with fish and chips in the chip shop outside, then took 2 buses back home. One of his best memories he says. (Hearsay)

After suffering for some years, with gall stones and yellow jaundice, her husband George Lionel, went into the Royal Berkshire Hospital for an operation to have his Gall Bladder removed. He came around from the operation, but collapsed and died shortly after. That was on 24th September 1941 he was 43. He was buried in an unmarked grave at St Sebastions Churchyard. The bungalow now belonged to Hilda Rose. She apparently opted to take a lump sum from the Broadmoor Asylum, rather than a pension for life.

Then her daughter Sylvia married in 1945, and her son Stanley Douglas was called up to join the Royal Navy, leaving home November 1945.

By 1947, Hilda Rose, and her 2 remaining daughters Betty and Jeanette decided to move to Reading, with son Lionel, so Hilda Rose sold the bungalow and bought a small terrace house no. 213 Peppard Road, Emmer Green, (a two up and two down with the toilet and sink with water supply up the back garden, in a row of similar houses). One walked straight off the road into the front room. (The house is still there, took a photo in 2001. GBJ)

Just after they moved there, her son Lionel became hard to manage and he was put in a home at Bristol. Hilda Rose ; loved going to the Cinema, and often went into Reading to the Odeon where she would spend the afternoon enjoying the films.

When her sons Stanley Douglas was demobbed from the Royal Navy in January 1948 and Leonard (still in the Navy)used to come home on leave,the little house must have been very crowded. But eventually all the children married.

Betty who married Frank Hinton, lived quite near to her in Caversham, and Hilda Rose used to visit them at least twice a week.

Jeanette was the last one to get married in 1955, and Hilda Rose sold her house and gave Jeanette and her husband Eric Viveash the money to buy a bigger house,and all her furniture and linen, and they promised she would live with them for the rest of her life,

Hilda Rose, was quite happy at first, as she used to do a lot of the housework and had the vegetables ready when they came home from work, etc. She also had her own sitting room.

She could also go to the cinema, regularly. And she enjoyed her cigarette. She often visited her son Stanley and his family at Whitley,Reading,usually on the weekend, and loved to see the horse racing on the television. and nearly every summer would go to Southampton for a holiday, to visit son Leonard and his family there.

But Jeanett and Eric moved around the town of Reading, buying smaller and smaller properties, until they ended up in a mobile home at Ravenswing at Aldermaston. Then Eric Vivieash had an accident and could no longer drive his car so they went to the Newbury council to get Hilda Rose looked after, as they were moving to one room in Castle Street, Reading.

Poor Hilda Rose, was back to being a lackey again, , she was found a place working for a Mrs Quelch at Heather Cottage. Broad Layings, Woolton Hill, Berks. about 1971, and she was aged 75. They lived in a very small, dark, old cottage, with a stone floor, and she used to get the meals for Mrs Quelch and wash up etc. She now found it hard to get into Reading, and her son Stanley and his family visited her often, on Sundays and even took Leonard and his family to visit one Sunday. She was really pleased to see them all.

She used to spend her Christmas's with Stanley and his family, and just before Christmas 1972, Stanley was planning on going to collect his mother for the usual holiday,when he received a phone call that his mother was in the Battle Hospital Reading, (the gardener at Heather Cottage had found her on the stone floor in the kitchen, he thought she had fell and hurt her head , Mrs Quelch was in Scotland for her Xmas holiday). But Hilda Rose had had a stroke, the family were sent for, and she died on 4th January 1973.

Her death certificate shows cause of death;

1 (a) C.V.A,

1(b) General Atherosclerosis

Certified by R Barrett. MB.

She was cremated at the Henley Road Cemetery. Caversham, Reading, Berks.

I have written this up from the memories of her children, and what I knew of her myself, and what she had told me. I have copies of her birth certificate, marriage certificate, death certificate, and 1901 census return. And photos of Richmond Villa, Mount St. Coventry;, St Sebastions Church, Nine Mile Ride Wokingham Without ;213 peppard Road, Emmer Green,Reading. And the countryside at Wokingham Without, and Finchampstead. Berks. G. B Judge Australia September 12 2002.

On 21st March 1918 the Germans launched a huge offensive on the Western Front, boosted by thousands of men who had been brought over from the collapsed Eastern Front. The British Army was steam-rollered, suffering appalling casualties of dead, wounded and those taken prisoner, the 2/6th Royal Warwickshire Regt. were in the Somme region, close to a village called Namps-au-Val, around 10 miles south west of Amiens. Between 21st and 31st March 1918, they lost 65 men dead on active service, so they were clearly in the front line.

On the Regimental Conduct Sheet, "No record of 203207 Judge George Lionel, Pte, having incurred any registered entry during period of service. 14 November 1919"

We next find him in 24 July 1920, living at 27 Smith St.,Coventry,a civilian 23, Ex army Records clerk. (as seen on his Marriage certificate and also on the note to the War Pension Acts, Warwickshire Local Committee 18 Old Square, Warwick.)

He met Hilda Rose Strange,24 yr old single woman, a Domestic Cook who was, working in "service" at Richmond Villas,Mount St. Coventry for Mr J Budge's household.

(Mr Budge was Managing Director of Standard Motor Co, which manufactured "British Leyland", "Standard Triumph"; and "Rover" cars in Coventry

Hilda Rose's parents were Henry (Harry) and Emma Margaret (Hicks) Strange.Henry was a Shepherd at Frilsham Farm ,Frilsham, Berks, (as his father had also been a shepherd) where Hilda Rose was born on December 9 1897. They were married on 6th November 1920 at the Coventry Registrars Office. Irene Beatrice Judge, George's sister was a witness.

Their first child, a son Leonard George Judge was born on 6th June 1921 at Saltersford,Coventry. Another son Lionel was born about 1922, in Crowthorne. The family had moved to Reading, where Hilda Rose said they lived in a couple of rooms either in Castle Street, or Bath Road Reading Berks. (Hearsay)

From a letter from the Hospital Archivist, Broadmoor Hospital (was always known as an Asylum), Crowthorne,Berks, " according to our records George Lionel Judge joined the Asylum Service as a "Clerk First Class" on 12 May 1922. (by being paid from that date)..This is slightly puzzling because he gained the Civil Service Certificate on 12 April 1922 and service towards a pension was supposed to be counted from the certification date. Could he have applied earlier to join another branch of the Civil Service - perhaps the Prison Service - and then changed his mind, or had it changed for him?

According to our index, George Lionel's service was then terminated on 15 June 1922. The wording might suggest he did not resign, and George Lionel's wording is unique and intriguing, particularly as his family can evidently be fairly sure he continued work at Broadmoor through the rest of the 1920's and 1930's. Given the several peculiarities in George Lionel's entries, it may be his records were "terminated" in order to begin again on a sound footing. We can be reasonably sure that this is the case because a 1939 "Establishment listing" shows him as "Appointed to establishment 1922," and "Appointed to substantive grade 1922" signed.

John Heritage Hospital Archivist. 1 August 2002.

The information below was supplied by Leonard George Judge their oldest son in 1996 in a letter. (it has been corrected by Stanley Douglas Judge the fourth son)

"George Lionel Judge managed to get a job as a Clerk at the Broadmoor Institution for the Mentally Insane (Asylum) at Broadmoor, Crowthorne Berkshire, and they moved to the village of Crowthorne to be near where the work was.

They lived over a garage at the bottom of the High Street, Crowthorne, Berks., right opposite the recreation ground. When their first daughter Hilda Sylvia arrived in 1925, the family moved to Adiscombe Lodge for a few months. Then they moved once again to a house in Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without, (Hillrise where Stanley was born?) It was not far from St. Sebastian's Church Memorial Hall. Another son was born (Kenneth) who unfortunately died as a baby. Also their last son Stanley Douglas Judge was born there (Hillrise, Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without) on 25th October 1927. The following year they once again moved, this time to a cottage called Birchenwood in Holley Bush Ride, Wokingham Without, where they stayed for about 11 years. In this time 2 more children, daughters, were born, Irene Betty Judge on 15th January 1929 and last but not least Jeanette Judge on 23rd January 1932.

The cottage was very primitive, no piped water, only a well in the garden which used to dry up in the summer, and then water was fetched from the Kingsmere Lake nearby (Where the Judge children and others, swam and played, they also swam often in Heath Pool.) It only had oil lamps and candles for lighting and an oil stove and coal range to cook on. They had as a neighbour, a milkman who kept his milk down the well to keep it cool." end of Leonards information.

George Lionel Judge was a quiet man, shy and of small build, whereas his wife Hilda Rose was quite a tall woman. He read a lot of books and liked walking in the country-side a great deal. He enjoyed visiting the theatre, and often went up to London to see the shows on his own.

Poor George Lionel Judge suffered often with Yellow Jaundice and his son Stanley Douglas remembers going to The Broadmoor Hospital and calling at the office to collect medicine for his father.

George Lionel Judge had a very bad temper upon occasions, mostly with his son Leonard, and on one occasion, he hit and kicked Leonard very hard, and Leonard reported it to a newspaper. (It is believed that George Lionel was taken to court over it, and the case was printed in the Newspaper.)

All of his children went to St Sebastian's Church School in the Nine Mile Ride Wokingham Without, Berkshire.

In 1939, just before the World War II started he bought a detached bungalow called "Ceda Deo" in the Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without. It had all the "mod cons", electricity for lights and cooking, running water and sewerage (Septic Tank). George Lionel was still working at Broadmoor, and was a Civil Servant, (Clerk)

NOTE to become a Civil Servant before the WW11, one had to pass an exam where 7 or 8 subjects were taken at the same time, and all had to be passed at a good result.

After suffering for some years, George Lionel Judge went into the Royal Berkshire Hospital, London Road, Reading, Berks for an operation to have his Gall bladder removed. He came around from the operation but collapsed and died on 24th September 1941 aged 43. Death certificate showed

- (a) Secondary Haemorrhage
- (b) Cholecystectomy
- (c) Obstructive Jaundice.

See NOTE 3 below

He was buried in St. Sebastian's Churchyard, Wokingham Without Berks, leaving a widow and 6 children. His widow received a pension which she took as a lump sum. (She later sold ' "Ceda Deo" and moved to Emmer Green, Reading with the 2 youngest daughters, and Lionel;)

NB The Judge family did not have many visitors to their houses (Leonard Judge recalled)" The only time he remembered relations calling they were his father's , when they were living over the garage in the High Street, Crowthorne, Berks."

Irene Betty Hinton nee Judge, daughter, recalled that her mother's brother Bert Strange and his 2 sons coming for a visit, but only the once.

NOTES:

- 1) The Nine Mile Ride Wokingham, Berks is said to be a Roman Road.
- 2) Broadmoor, is an Institution for the criminally insane, where the in-patients are sent "at Her (or His) Majesty's Pleasure", usually for the rest of their lives.
- 3) an article "JUST DOING MY JOB" from a British Newspaper read 2001.

" I'm appalled at the huge awards being made to Public Servants who appear to be only doing their jobs, and irritated by the constant encouragement by the legal profession to make such claims.

In 1938 as a 17yr old civil service officer, I was appointed to Broadmoor criminal lunatic asylum. After 6 months in the General office, I joined a section with another young man only a few years older, supervising the work of six criminal lunatics.

We carried out normal clerical duties, sometimes working overtime in the evenings, replacing a senior clerk who was no longer deemed fit to work with patients.

Uniformed staff were never anywhere near the area.

Our charges were trusted patients, even though all but one were murderers.

I did this job for about 3 years. We received just the normal civil service provincial rate and all requests for "danger money" were rejected out of hand.

After 18 years working at Broadmoor, I was fortunate in not being adversely affected. Others were not so lucky. The Clerk I replaced later hanged himself and a colleague became mentally ill and was transferred to a London job.

When I examined the records dating back to the 19th century, I found hardly any clerical and administrative staff had retired from Broadmoor at the normal retirement age.

Most died on the job, or retired on medical grounds or were transferred,. But nobody thought of compensation in those days. It wasn't in our culture, we just got on with our jobs.

Notes for LIONEL HENRY JUDGE:

Lionel Henry Judge, born 22 Nov 1922, son of George Lionel & Hilda Rose (Strange) Judge. Birth registered at Wokingham Berks RO Dec qtr. 1922 vol 2c page 645. His father was working as a clerk at Broadmoor Asylum. Crowthorne. Berks, Lionel Henry was a backward child, and suffered from learning difficulties. After his father died, his 2 brothers were in the Royal Navy, his mother & 2 sisters decided to move from "Cedadeo", Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without, to a small cottage in Emmer Green, Reading. There was no work in the town for Lionel, and about 1945/6 he was put into care, as his mother could not cope him.

He was looked after in Allenbury Ward, Brentry Hospital, Westbury on Trym, Bristol, and he was later moved to Chasefield House, 888 Fishponds Rd. Fishponds, Bristol, where he was taught to look after himself, and be self-sufficient.

About 1981, his 2 brothers, Leonard & Stanley & their wives visited Bristol, where Lionel was living, sharing accommodation with 3 other similarly affected men. He told them " He was working at Debenham's in Bristol, as a porter. He attended the Bristol football club, and enjoyed a chicken & chips supper at a local pub afterwards. And still liked his fags" Lionel was unable to read and write and for a while letters were written on his behalf. He never married.

He was moved to Greatname House, 200 Henbury Rd., Westbury on Trym, Bristol.

It was a surprise to find he had died in 1988, on 31 May, at Glenhorne House. Bristol. A Christmas card sent to Greatname House (as above) was returned " not known at this address" in Jan 2001, to his brother Stanley Judge living in Australia who asked Mrs Betty Hinton, Lionel's sister living in Reading Berks, to find out what had happened. There is an email. explaining how they learnt Lionel had died in 1988, 3 years before and no member of his family had been notified .

A copy of his death certificate was obtained . Lionel Henry Judge died on 31 May 1988 at Glenhorne House 20 Henbury Road, Westbury on Trym, Bristol, of b. Calcific Aortic Stenosis.

Certified by Donald Hawkins, H M Coroner, for County of Avon no 2 district after post mortem without inquest.
Informant: John Anthony Ryan, of Brunel House, St Georges Road, Bristol, Who caused the body to be cremated.

The Death Certificate shows Lionel Henry Judge was born in Southampton, which is wrong. His brother Leonard lived at Southampton & the authorities must have presumed that was where Lionel came from.

On Feb 8th 2002, I (Stanley Judge's wife and Lionel's sister in law) visited the Enoggera Family History Centre, to read St Katherine's birth index, to check where Lionel Henry Judge was born. I found an entry for Lionel H Judge, mother Strange, birth registered Wokingham Berks RO. Dec Qtr. 1922 vol 2c page 645. So that is the correct place of birth, Decided not to get birth certificate.

She and her sister Betty spent most of their free time at the cinema, going several times a week.

She was bridesmaid at her brother Stanley's wedding 10 November 1951 to Gwendolen Betty Courtnage at Christ Church Reading and also at her sister Betty's wedding on 14 november 1951 to Frank Hinton at St Peters Caversham Reading.

She married Eric Viveash in 1955 at Reading Registry Office. Her mother sold her house and gave them the money to buy a big Terrace house in Baker Street Reading, and also gave them all her furniture and linen etc. (On the condition that they looked after her for the rest of her life).

They moved after a year to a new flat in Valerie Court, Bath Road Reading, and then again to another terrace house in Norcot Road Tilehurst Reading, and they took Jeanette's mother with them.

When they moved to a mobile home on a caravan park at Ravensbrook, Aldermaston, (in the country,) they put Mrs Hilda Rose Judge into the care of the Berkshire County Council, who found her a live-in job looking after an invalid lady in a small cottage at Ball Hill, Nr Newbury Berks.

Eric Viveash had an accident with his car so they had no transport and had to move back to a small flat in Castle Street , Reading , and from there with the help of Eric's sister obtained a council flat in Blossom Lane, Theale Berks

Jeanette Viveash nee Judge, had worked hard all her life,and had no children, it is believed (hearsay) that her husband gambled and they ended up owning only a few sticks of her mother's old furniture.

Jeanett had suffered indigestion for some years and on the night she died she thought it was another attack, and asked for a drink of hot water, but she suffered a massive heart attack. It was all over before her husband could boil the kettle. (as told by Eric Viveash) She died December 30th 1982 aged 51.

Her heart attack was probably an inherited disease, as her father had died of heart failure after his operation for gall stones,aged 44. and later on her brother Stanley at 59 had an heart attack and slight stroke aand has ischaemic heart disease. (unstable angina) , and brother Leonard died of a stroke, he suffered from angina,and her sister Sylvia, has had an bypass op on her heart.

Notes for LEONARD GEORGE JUDGE:

Leonard Judge was born 6th June 1921 at Salterford, just outside Coventry,Warwicks. the eldest son of George Lionel and Hilda Rose (Strange) Judge.

His parents moved to Berkshire about 1922, when his father obtained a Clerk's job at Broadmoor Institution for the Criminally Insane, at Crowthorne,Berks.

NOTE BROADMOOR is an institution for the criminally insane, where the inpatients have been sent "at His or Her Majesty's Pleasure"

The family moved around the Crowthorne/Wokingham Without area, as more brothers and sisters arrived. (Three brothers and three sisters)

This information sent in a letter by Leonard George Judge in 1996 and tells how it was for him,

"When my father got the job at Crowthorne, we, Dad, Mum, Lionel my new brother and I moved to the village,and we lived over a garage at the bottom of the High Street, right opposite the recreation ground. When my sister Hilda Sylvia was born in 1925 we moved to "Addiscombe Lodge" for a few months.

Then Dad rented a house in Nine Mile Ride,Wokingham Without, not far from St Sebastian's Church Memorial Hall. It could have been called Hillrise, where 2 of my brothers were born, Kenneth, who died young and Stanley Douglas in 1927.

When I became 4 years old, (1925/6), I attended St Sebastian's Church School.

In 1928, we moved once again to a cottage called Birchenwood in Holley Bush Ride, Wokingham Without , where my sisters Irene Betty (1929) and Jeanette (1932) were born. We were to stay there 11 years.

The cottage was very primitive, no piped water,only a well in the garden, which used to dry up some hot summers, and I would have to fetch water in a bucket from Kingsmere Lake (Which was also used as a swimming pool by local children including the Judges) It only had oil lamps and candles for lighting and an oil stove and kitchen range to cook on. Our neighbour was a milkman, who kept his milk in the well to keep it cool." end of some of Leonards memories.

Leonard passed an exam to go to a Central School in Wokingham, when he was 11.He started,but left,probably the journey was too far, and not enough public transport in those days. He finished his schooling at St Sebastian's.

Nine Mile Ride,

NOTE, The Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without Berks is said to be a ROMAN ROAD

The Judges did not have many visitors to any of their houses. Len recalled "The only time I can remember when relations called, they were some of my father's, who visited when we were living over the garage in the High Street Crowthorne (about 1924)" His sister Betty remembers only one occasion, when her mother's brother, "Uncle" Bert Strange and his 2 sons visited.(Does not know when)

Leonard's father had a very bad temper upon occasions, mainly caused by Len . (Len said he was always picked on and blamed and punished) On one occasion, Mr Judge really lost his temper and he hit and kicked Leonard very hard. Leonard reported it to a newspaper. (It is believed that Leonard's father was taken to court over it and the case was printed in the newspapers.)

The first job we know Leonard had, was as a Kitchen Boy in the Camberley Court Hotel in Camberley Surrey, where he probably " lived in". He tells how his mother used to wait outside the Hotel when he received his pay, for some money. While working there , he became interested in joining the Royal Navy . He volunteered and his father signed the papers.

.On his Certificate of Service, date of actually volunteering given as 17 January 1938 12 years service.

143. STANLEY DOUGLAS¹⁴ JUDGE (*HILDA ROSE*¹³ STRANGE, *HENRY*¹², *JOSEPH*¹¹, *WILLIAM*¹⁰, *FRANCIS*⁹, *FRANCIS/FRANCES*⁸, *WILLIAM*⁷, *WILLIAM*⁶, *JOHN*⁵, *THOMAS*⁴, *THOMAS*³, *THOMAS*², *UNKNOWN*²¹) was born 25 Oct 1927 in Hillrise,Nine Mile Ride,Wokingham Without, Berks, UK. He married GWENDOLEN BETTY COURTNAGE 10 Nov 1951 in Christ Church, Reading, Berkshire, England, daughter of DONALD COURTNAGE and ELIZABETH CLIFFORD. She was born 05 Mar 1929 in Dellwood,Leibenrood Rd,Reading Berks.

Notes for STANLEY DOUGLAS JUDGE:

Stanley Douglas Judge was born on 25th October 1927, to George Lionel Judge and Hilda Rose (nee Strange) at "Hillrise" Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without,Berks. He was quite heavy weighing in about 11 lbs. he was the fifth child and the fourth son. His father was a clerk at Broadmoor Asylum in Crowthorne, Berks.

When Stanley was about a year old, (info from Leonard Judge, Stan's older brother) in 1928 the family moved, to a cottage called Birchenwood, in Holly Bush Ride, Wokingham Without, where they stayed for about 11 years. 2 more sisters arrived there.

The cottage was very primitive, no running water (only a well) and no gas or electricity, His mother used the coal range or oil stove for cooking and heating water . Stanley remembers getting water from the nearby Kingsmere lake, when the well dried up. (note Stanley and his siblings and local children used the lake in the summer months, mainly for swimming). They also used Heath pool, another lake quite near to their home to swim etc.

With his brothers & sisters he collected fir cones and tree branches for the range. In September they collected Horse Chestnuts, and roasted them on the bars of the range. They tasted so good.

Stanley and his siblings all attended the local school, St Sebastions School, next to St Sebastian' 's Church, in the Nine Mile Ride, which they walked to and from. There were only two classrooms, and a baby's room (for 4yr olds). Children attending there were aged between 4 and 14 yrs old. Sometimes in the summer, Stanley's mother would collect her children when school finished, and she would have a picnic basket, and on the way home, they would sit among the heather and ferns which abounded all along that area, and have their tea. (sandwiches and home made lemonade) and play. (Told by Irene Betty, Stan's sister).

Stanley recalls how scary it was walking home in the dark, especially when the owls were hooting.

Also the time there was a big storm raging, when him and some of his siblings were at Heath Pool and the lightning set fire to the undergrowth nearby. And they all ran home terrified. Stanley was about 8 yrs old.

A couple of years later, his older brother Leonard, joined the Boys service in the Royal Navy (,in 1937) and before he left home, he was dressed in a new suit, when him and Stanley and a couple of friends took an home made cart on the Nine Mile Ride, and Leonard was the first one to try it out down a steep slope and the cart toppled over into the "Red Ruddle" (a brook). His new suit was wet, so they made a fire and dried it out, so he wouldn't get into trouble with his parents.

When Stanley was either 11 or 12, his father bought a detached bungalow called "Ceda Deo" in the Nine Mile Ride, Wokingham Without. It was quite luxurious, with electricity and running water and a septic tank.

That Christmastime, the Judge children; Stanley; Betty; Lionel and Jeanette went carol singing along Wellingtonia Avenue, (very big houses, in a very rich area) and they were rewarded for their efforts with 6d between them at each house. (Quite a tidy sum in those days)

But sadness came along, when on 24 September 1941, Stanley's father died suddenly after an operation for gallstones, in the Royal Berkshire Hospital, in Reading Berks. He was buried in St Sebastian's Churchyard, Nine Mile Ride. Wokingham Without. (no markings for his grave)

Stanley left St Sebastian's School, when he was 14 yrs old, and received a Holy Bible as a leaving prize. (which he still has) He started work straight away, at the Wokingham Co-op Shop, in Market Place, Wokingham. He was an errand boy and bakery assistant, sometimes going out on the bakery rounds with the delivery man in his horse and cart around all the villages in that part of Berkshire. He also helped in the Bacon dept, slicing the rashers, and he also collected the manager's lunch from the Rose Inn, opposite. He worked there about 2 years.. From 1943-1945 (during World War 11) he worked at Metalair Wokingham, making parts of aircraft fittings etc.

His Naval Career.

Then on 29th November 1945 he was called up for Military service, and he chose the Royal Navy.

Service no. MX782829. He travelled to HMS Royal Arthur, Skegness, Lincs. (a former Butlin's holiday camp, taken over by the Royal Navy.) The after 3 weeks, travelled to HMS Glendower in Pwllheli, N Wales, (another Butlins Holiday Camp) for disciplinary Pt 1 Training ;ie marching etc., until June 1946

He trained as a Steward/Officers Steward on HMS Victory in Portsmouth Hants. from June to October 1946.

After training, Stanley served on HMS Howe as an Officer's Steward, at Portland Harbour for 1 year, Under Captain Ellis, (called Hangman Ellis). The ship did not go to sea very often, now the war was over. They did sail around the south coast into Mevagissey harbour some time in 1947. He was stationed on HMS Vincent in Gosport Hants, and then went back to HMS Victory in Portsmouth in Feb 1948 for 2 weeks while he awaited his demob on 5th March 1948.

His character was " Very Good throughout the Service."

He was released in Class "A"

No breaks in service.

Rank held" Assistant Steward, Steward.. (copy of statement on file.)

In the meantime, while him and his brother Leonard, (also in the Royal Navy) were away Stanley's mother had sold the Bungalow at Wokingham Without and with Lionel, and her 2 daughters, Irene Betty & Jeanette, they had bought a small 2 bedroomed terrace house at 213 Peppard Road, Emmer Green Reading.

This is to where Stanley came home after his demob.

Stanley worked at a printing firm while awaiting to get on a 6 month woodwork/bodybuilding course at the Government Training centre at Slough Bucks.(now Berks), which started in September 1948. When he had completed his course he was supplied with a full set of carpentry tools, and then worked for various coach building firms in Reading Berks. i.e. Vincents, Station Road, making horse boxes, 1949-1950 and Elliotts of Caversham, where he was working when he met his future wife, Gwendolen Betty Courtnege. (known as Betty), daughter of Donald Reuben Courtnege, of 66 Brixham Road, Reading. (bus driver and Union Rep.)

They met at the Reading Trade Union Hall, Minster Street, Reading, in May 1950 on an election night.

Stanley had called in and was playing snooker with some other men, when Betty searching for her brother Donald Courtnege, came into the snooker room. Her brother was one of the men playng snooker with Stanley. They sat & chatted and at the end of the evening had made a date.

On November 10th. 1951 they were married at Christ Church, Reading, by the Rev. Knell (who later was the Bishop of Reading), bridesmaids were, Mrs. Phylis Jefferies (nee Robins), her 6 yr old daughter Christine, Mrs Elsie Allen (nee Sherwood) and Jeanette Judge, (Stan's sister) Best man was Mr Leonard Judge, (Stan's brother). Witnesses D R Courtnege & L G Judge. The reception was held at 66 Brixham Rd. Reading, the couple left for a short honeymoon at the Portsmouth.

On their return they moved into a 1room bedsitter flat on the 1st floor (of a 4 story house) at 144 Chatham Street Reading. By now Stan was working for the Thames Valley Bus Traction Co. just around the corner, and Betty kept on with her job in the office at Archer Bottrill & Fuller, Walpamur House, Oxford Rd, Reading, which she could walk to.

They put their names on to 2 housing lists, the Council one and a builders one, Houses were still in short supply due to a shortage of building materials.

Their first child a son, Phillip Douglas Denver Judge was born on 2 Feb, 1953 at Battle Hospital weighing 10lb 2 oz. a difficult birth. It was snowing outside and very cold.

Stanley changed his job to try carpentering, and worked for a builder altering a shop in Oxford Rd/West Street. He rode his bike to work.

Another son Paul Martin Judge was born on 6th April 1955 at Dellwood Nursing Home, Leibenrood Road, Reading. he weighed 8lb exactly. A lovely Spring day with sunshine.

Stanley continued working for the building trade, changing jobs when one finished, and when the family moved into their council house at 28 Stockton Road, Reading, a 2 bedroomed end house with quite a big garden, with an entrance to Ashmead Boys School on the left. This was in September 1956. Rent was 7 shillings a week. A lot of work was needed on the inside of the house ie a new fireplace had to be installed at our cost and a new stove and sink in the kitchen and the garden was a jungle of weeds.

Stan started work as a carpenter for the Chivers Group at AWRE (Atomic Weapons Research Establishment) Aldermaston Berks. Transport to the site was supplied and he could pick up the coach early in the morning, and there was plenty of overtime at weekends. He transferred to Chivers at AERE (Atomic Electrical Research Establishment) Harwell, and eventually to Chivers at the Weather Bureau at Bracknell.

Each one being for quite long contracts. When they finished he worked for small local builders.

And gradually the house began to be livable and gardens were planted with flowers (especially roses) and vegetables, and lawns sown and paths built.

When the Reading Council decided that council house tenants could buy the houses they lived in, Stan and Betty decided to do just that. So in 1960 they took out a mortgage for 1,080 pounds, paying back 8 pound a month. New improvements were new windows all over, Brick wall with ironwork and iron gates. Wooden back porch. Plastering of the Kitchen and built in Kitchen Units with stainless steel sinktop. Plastering and tiling of bathroom with new toilet, hand basin and bath with shower unit.

1970's showed more improvements ; Built ins in the Bedrooms; night storage heaters;a covered way and double garage with workshop; new front porch.

Stanley was working with a builder, Harry Russell of Woodley, in 1963 the severe winter weather (it snowed in January, then the frost froze it until April), everything was frozen so hard, they were unable to keep him on. All building work in the area came to a standstill. A neighbour told Stan of a job at a big store in Reading who were looking for a maintenance carpenter. He worked there and would get some commission if he found the man for the job. It was at HEELAS in Broad St. Reading.(part of the JOHN LEWIS organisation where all staff are partners) a big old store on about 4 or 5 floors, wanting a lot of maintenance.

Stanley decided after much thinking, that he would take it. It was completely different to what he had been used to., shut in all day and the building was quite hot and stuffy. He started April 1963 and stayed 20 years, until April 1983, when he and his wife emigrated to Brisbane, Queensland, Australia to join their 2 sons and their families.

Their 2 sons, Philip & Paul, had attended the Whitley Park Nursery, Infant and Junior schools, and Betty worked part time, with hours to suit their school hours.

Philip from age 2 had trouble with his ears, and spent some time every year until he was 12 in hospital. He left Whitley Park Junior school and started at Ashmead Secondary Modern school for boys,. (right next door to his home). He was there till he was 17. He eventually became a bricklayer and emigrated to Australia, where he married Sue, in Perth WA 14 august 1978. and had 2 children:Zoe b 24 july 1979 Fremantle WA and Ben., born september 18th 1983 at Mullimimby, New South Wales. They had moved to 5 acres of land at Upper Coopers Creek, Nr , Lismore NSW. then moved back to Perth WA in December 1985.

Paul passed his 11 plus exam and gained a place at Reading Grammar School, and he left after taking his 'O' level exams, and joined a firm of accountants, undertaking articles to be a Chartered Accountant with

Haines.Watts & Partners, in Reading. (Where he met his future wife, Simone Virginia May of Windsor.)

Stanley & Betty took Paul and his girlfriend Simone , with them when they visited Philip & Sue in Perth WA.,in 1977 for 6 weeks, Paul & Simone married, on 27th May 1978 at Reading Register Office,then they also emigrated to Australia, staying at first with Philip & Sue in Fremantle. Then moved around Perth, finally moving over to Eastern side and settled in Brisbane. Queensland, where their 3 children were born: Louise on 13 March 1985 ; Mark on 4 December 1986 and Hannah on 12 February 1990.

With both sons living on the Eastern coast of Australia, Stanley & Betty once again visited them in July/Aug 1982. Susan had sent in form to sponsor them to live in Australia, but while they were visiting it was decided neither son could afford to. When Stan & Betty arrived back at 28 Stockton Rd Reading UK, a letter from Australia House awaited them, with an appointment to have an interview etc. in September, which they did, completing the application to emigrate form. The interviewing officer decided they could go without sponsorship, if they passed their medicals. They did and had to leave England before the end of April 1983, a rush to sell their house, and they decided to ship their furniture over, with Stan's tools and Betty's collection of teapots.

They arrived 24th April 1983, staying with son Paul and his wife Simone, at The Gap, a suburb in Brisbane Queensland, for about 5 months, while awaiting for their furniture to arrive. They then bought a 3 bedroomed highset tin-roofed wooden house ,with 5 air conditioners, and an indoor staircase in, at 31 Camelia Avenue, Woodridge, (later known as Logan Central). 26 august 1983, for $48,000.

On 5 June 1984 Stanley managed to get a job with the Logan City Council, (on the redcard CEP scheme) but only for six months. He worked outdoors,form setting for footpaths and channels in and around Logan. He left when the contract finished 1st March 1985 . Work was still hard to find. Had did several casual jobs, cleaning in schools in the area. His wife had also joined Logan City Council, on the same scheme, and had to leave after one year,she then found work with one of the Inspectors who had left the council and started his own business.

In April 1986 Stan found another job, with the Playground and Recreation Association of Queensland ;a Lions project modernising a Childrens Playground Centre in Ellen Road, Woodridge, quite near his home, and on July 24th 1986 while fixing a cupboard on the wall, he had pains in his left arm and chest. He drove home and luckily his wife had that day off, and found him in the car on the front drive, She phoned the doctor, who sent a taxi for him, and when he got to the surgery, sent for an ambulance. Stan had had a heart attack. He went into the Mater Hospital , and stayed a while, He was very fragile when he first came home, and had Ischaemic Heart Disease (unstable angina and he could have another heart attack at any time.) His cholestrol was about 15, very high, and he went into Prince Charles Hospital for an angiblost. (Dye pumped through the main artery to see the damage) He had a slight blockage on one artery which would improve and the other arteries would take over in time.

Again it was hard finding a job, No one wanted to employ a man with heart problems, eventually in June 1990 he was classed as disabled and drew a disabled pension until he was eligible for his Age Pension at 65 yrs of age, October 1992,

In the meantime on 7 June 1989, both Stan and his wife Betty became Australian Citizens at a ceremony at Logan City Chambers. .Woodbridge.

He had given up smoking and went on a strict low cholesterol diet, bringing it down to 5. He was still able to drive is car and enjoyed travelling in it. Also taking trips in Australia, by train and plane, and especially going to Perth to see his son Philip and his family, and travelling around WA.

There were many English visitors, mainly relations, to Camelia Avenue, everyone was made welcome there. Neighbours said it should be called "the Dew Drop Inn"

On Octrober 10 1994 the house at Camelia Avenue was sold, (in three days) and a move was made to The Gap suburb. A lowset brick and tile house was bought at 21 Cedarhurst St,. New fencing down one side built, and the drive was widened. Windows were repaired and the garden landscaped. Decorated inside and out, and new tiles on the roof. It was now how he liked it.

For their 50th wedding anniversary (Golden Wedding) him and Betty flew to England for 9 weeks, visiting members of the families that had been at their wedding. It was a wonderful holiday, everyone made them so welcome.

Stan has always enjoyed watching sport, ie Football, Speedway, Snooker and he has enjoyed watching the cricket here in Australia, especially going to the 2006 Ashes test matches England versus Australia at the GABBA in Brisbane with Paul. Now his old home team Reading Football Club are in the Premier League, he watches all their games when they are shown on TV, and is so pleased with their progress. He also attends the Queensland Roar Soccer games played at the Suncorp Stadium with his wife and son Paul.

He still plays snooker every Wednesday morning, with his buddies at the Gaythorne RSL (Returned Servicemans League), driving there and back.

HEALTH

As a child Stanley did not have any of the childrens ailments, (measles etc) although his siblings suffered with them (his mother said) . He was inoculated and vaccinated when he joined the Royal Navy, but has no marks or scars on his arms.

About 1960 he suffered a slipped disc and was in a plaster cast (from armpits to thighs) for 10 weeks, and then had to wear a steel boned corset (especially made to fit) for another 2 years. He also had to find a lighter type of job. No heavy lifting.

He suffers with a skin rash, as did his brother Leonard and his son Paul does , probably an allergy.

Has heart problems (see 1986 above) which he may have inherited from his father who died in his early 40's from heart failure after a gallstone operation. His younger sister Jeanette died suddenly with a massive heart attack, only 51, in January 1983. His brother Leonard also suffered with angina and died of a stroke, his sister Sylvia has had heart problems too.

Stanley had a minor stroke in 1987, and he had his prostate removed same year at Mater Hospital (no cancer found) . but as his cholesterol has been high, he has regular blood tests, and now he has protein in his blood has water tests also. His blood pressure is low.

He suffered with a rare eye disease called Iritis, first attack was in September 1993. Drops controlled it, and in January 1997 it was discovered that he had a rare form of Colitis. (and Iritis is one of the symptoms).

He still suffers with diarrhea especially on very hot days and when the mangoes are in season , has to watch what he eats and takes pills to control it.

He has lately had several skin cancers taken off his body and head, at the Royal Brisbane Hospital. Luckily he heals up very well.

TRANSPORT

Stanley cycled to school and had his first bicycle when he was about 12. He continued cycling when he was living and working in Reading , and used to cycle home quite late at night (or early in the morning) when courting Betty. He cycled to work after his marriage and had a small saddle put on the bar for son Phillip to sit on. He was still cycling when he worked at Heelas.

Then he bought the Lambretta scooter his oldest son Philip used to ride , in 1971, and that was used not only for work but for trips to the coast and visiting relations.; with Betty on the back.

He next bought a pale green 3 wheeled Reliant van ,in 1972, as the motor cycle licence covered it; and that went many miles around England.

After passing his driving test for a four wheeled vehicle,in 1976, he bought a Red Ford Escort from a neighbour.

Then in 1981 he bought a nearly new Austin Maxi (maroon in colour) which was very useful for transporting goods ie to the Cowley markets, helping his brother in law Don Courtnege run a second-hand/used stall,and also for taking the flower arrangements his wife made for weddings, to decorate the Church and tables .

He sold the Austin Maxi to a workmate when he emigrated to Australia, and here he needed a car as soon as possible so bought a Cream Ford Escort in May 1983, quite cheap, but it was a good little car and took them many miles in New South Wales and Queensland.

It was sold in part exchange for a white Mazda 313, automatic, airconditioned, in April 1989, This car also lasted well, but was needing more repairs, so decided to part exchange it for another Mazda, a 121, pale green, automatic, airconditioned, with power steering in March 2006, (grand-daughter Louise's first car)

Betty, his wife had always had to work: cleaning offices, schools and shops, early in the mornings and late in the evenings when the children were little, even when pregnant. Her last job was with Heelas (now John Lewis) Reading, as an early morning cleaner, where she worked until she retired at 60.

She had been very close to her younger sister Jeanette, who died at 50, they were fond of going to the cinema 2 or 3 times a week when single.. Betty's mother visited her at least twice a week before she sold her house and moved in with Jeanette and her husband . Betty has tried to bring sister Sylvia back in to the family circle , but is unable to do so yet.

In her last letter (2004) , Betty said she had had both her cateracts done and is suffering from diabetes 2. and she minds her youngest grand-daughter age 2.

Sometimes at least 15 of her family go on holidays together , taking her with them. They look after their mother very well.

Her youngest son Mark now keeps in contact with his Uncle Stan, with emails . GBJ 22 june 2005
